

Help Us Restock the Pantry

Six years of neighbors helping neighbors. Now we need your help to replenish essential food supplies before winter. Community Coming Together serves more than 500 families each month in Rome and surrounding communities.

COMMUNITY DROP-OFF DAY • FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23 • NOON-3 PM

Sacred Heart Parish / St. John the Baptist Church • 210 E. Dominick St., Rome

Donate at a local business

CRUST Kitchen & Bar • 86 Hangar Rd., Rome

Vine & Fig • 8171 Turin Rd., Rome

Appearances Salon • 2003 N. James St., Rome

Collection boxes will be available throughout October during participating businesses' regular hours.

Most-needed pantry items

Canned vegetables, fruit, soup, tuna and chicken; pasta and sauce; rice; instant mashed potatoes; beans; peanut butter; jelly; cereal; oatmeal; applesauce; and powdered milk.

Please donate only unopened, unexpired, shelf-stable foods.

Prefer to give financially?

$20 can help fill a pantry bag • $50 can help provide bread • $100 can help support protein purchases.

Donate to the Community Coming Together Fund

Made possible by our community

Founded through St. John the Baptist Church (now part of Sacred Heart Parish), the Catholic Daughters, and the Project Fibonacci Foundation. With coordination by Bob Bojanek and support from the Food Bank of Central New York, ANDRO Computational Solutions, local churches, businesses, and dedicated volunteers, this effort has continued since 2020.

Interested in hosting a collection box or helping out? ajaworski@projectfibonacci.org